

Women Business Owners of Denton County

“Recipe for Life: Making Sense of the Forks in the Road” Topic of Speaker Debbie Meyer-Gore at WBODC’s August 2009 Luncheon, Tuesday, August 4th

Women Business Owners of Denton County will hold its monthly luncheon on Tuesday, August 4th, at Oakmont Country Club, Corinth, Texas.

“Recipe for Life: Making Sense of the Forks in the Road” will be the topic of guest speaker Debbie Meyer-Gore, who guides women to craft their perfect recipe for a more fulfilling life. By encouraging participants to adjust and balance the ingredients of their own life, Debbie will share how awareness, balance, contrast and desire help us to understand the inevitable forks in the road in the journey to a rewarding life.

Debbie Meyer-Gore was a former fashion buyer for Fortune 500 companies, which included Dillard’s Department Stores, A Pea in the Pod, and Viacom Entertainment. Arriving at an unexpected fork in the road after two successive retail layoffs, Debbie effectively transitioned her career and personal life to pursue her

Upcoming Meetings
11:30 am Networking
12 noon Lunch
12:30 pm Program

September 1, 2009

Lori Walter, LMT

Topic: "Fortify for Fall: 10 Wellness Tips to Protect Your Best Business Asset"

October 6, 2009

Jeff Klein, Klein Creative

Topic: "Conversation Killers vs. Conversation Starters"

November 3, 2009

Tamera Bennett and Louellen Coker

Topic: "Don't Be Afraid, You Can Social Network: 5 Easy Steps to Launch A Social Networking Plan"

Cost:

$15 - WBODC Members
$20 - Guests and Non-members

Click here to RSVP

Click here to pay online

Location:

Oakmont Country Club
1200 Clubhouse Drive
Corinth, TX (map)
Phone Number: 940-321-5599
